 - i. Harassment policy is part of the Code of Conduct in the College Handbook and at www. http://springfieldcollege.edu/sexual-assault-prevention-and-response.

4. Sexual harassment consists of but is not limited to:

- i. Sexual harassment means sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when: submission to or rejection of such advances; requests or conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or academic success or as a basis for employment decisions; or: such advances, requests or conduct have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating, or sexually offensive work or learning environment.
 1. Non-consensual sexual intercourse:
 - a. Any sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal), however slight and with any object, by a man or woman upon a man or a woman, without consent*.
 2. Non-consensual sexual contact:
 - a. Any intentional sexual touching, however slight and with any object, by a man or a woman upon a man or a woman without consent*.
 3. *Consent:
 - a. Consent is clear, knowing, and voluntary. Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity. Consent to any one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to any other.
 4. Sexual exploitation:
 - a. Sexual exploitation occurs when a student takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other Sexual Misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to: invasion of sexual privacy; prostituting another student; non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity; going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex); engaging in voyeurism; knowingly transmitting an STI or HIV to another student; exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals; and sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation.
 5. Title IX:

- a. Title IX—part of a 1972 federal education law—prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity. Sexual harassment and sexual violence are forms of sexual discrimination. Springfield College is committed to providing an environment free from discrimination.
6. Domestic violence:
 - a. Felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.
 7. Dating violence:
 - a. Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors; the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
 8. Stalking:
 - a. Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.
 9. Gender-based violence:
 - a. Gender-based violence includes all physical, psychological, and sexual violence that is connected to an individual's gender roles and identities.
 - ii. Notify campus recreation professional staff if you feel you are a victim of sexual harassment
 - iii. Fill out appropriate incident report with staff member
 - iv. Notify campus recreation staff if you feel you have witnessed this harassment occur to another student/faculty/staff
 - v. Campus Rec staff will notify the Dean of students office of the incident and provide a report.
